SEPTEMBER 2010

Date	Speaker	Subject
2nd Sept 2010 2.00-3.30 pm	Celebrating Age Festival Mary Forlenza	The Delights of Tuscany Mary Forlenza will delight us with the beautiful landscapes, rich artistic legacy and the high culture. Tuscany is widely regarded as the true birthplace of the Italian Renaissance.
9th Sept 2010 2.00-3.30 pm	Helen Marti	Quiz To be held at the Wimbleton Guild Dining Room
16th Sept 2010 2.00-3.30 pm	Malcolm Hill	Social Work Services for the Elderly
23rd Sept 2010 2.00-3.30 pm	Daniel Robbins	Linley-Sambourne House A unique example of a late Victorian town-house, Linley-Sambourne House is home to the cartoonist Edward Linley Sambourne and his family from 1874.
30th Sept 2010 2.00-3.30 pm	Romie Lamah	The Golden Ratio in Music Romie started playing the piano since the age of 5 and although she has given a number of public concerts, music has meant much more to her than just a professional career. She has been discovering how interconnected it is, not just to the other arts (dancing, painting, poetry, architecture etc.) but to many other dimensions that one would not normally associate with it; this is what she will be endeavouring to show in her next talk about The Golden Ratio in Music.
